During the continuance of this Level Three restriction as parties appear at the front count of the trial court clerk's office.

For criminal cases: the clerk shall direct defendant to the courtroom during out of custody arraignments. The court shall conduct that out of custody arraignment with all precautions suggested by Oregon Health Authority.

For FEDs: the clerk shall give to that party a written notice of the future court date with the case number if known and shall sign the notice as clerk, which shall be seven weeks in the future from the date the party appears.

The clerk shall cause a copy of that notice to be entered into the court record.

Dated this 30th day of March, 2020.

William Marshall, Circuit Court Judge
